HOUSING AND ENERGY SERVICE PROGRAMS AVAILABLE TO RENTERS AND HOMEOWNERS:

Are you looking for ways to save money on your gas and electric bills? Energy Efficiency Programs are available for qualified limited-income renters and homeowners

Southern California Gas Direct Assistance Program (DAP)
Services are available to Southern California Gas customers. Income qualified Gas customers who take advantage of this program can receive a range of fuel-efficient weatherization services, such as getting their attics insulated and their doors and windows replaced. Homeowners can have their furnaces repaired or replaced. Weatherization services have to meet feasibility criteria to install as well as the visible need to replace doors or windows. To find out more about this program call (323) 728-1585.

Southern California Edison Energy Management Assistance (EMA)
Edison customers who are income eligible can have energy-saving refrigerators installed. They can also have as many as five energy-saving compact fluorescent lamps delivered to their homes. To find out more about this program call (323) 869-4600.

State of California Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
Qualified low income homeowners and renters can receive a range of energy-saving and safety services, from attic insulation, refrigerator replacement, and carbon monoxide testing, furnace repair or replacement, to installation of energy-saving devices, minor home repairs and information packets about energy conservation. To find out more about this program call (323) 869-4500.

Home Energy Assistance program (HEAP)
Eligible clients who need assistance to pay their utility bills, can receive assistance through the Maravilla Foundation. Eligibility is determined by ZIP codes. Priority clients are senior citizens, the disabled and families with small children. Each is eligible for once-a-year assistance. To find out more about this program call (323) 721-4162.

These programs are administered by a Local Community Service Provider. The Service Provider for the City of Monterey Park is Maravilla Foundation located at 5729 E. Union Pacific Ave., Commerce, CA 90022.
